Faith to Run the Christian Marathon Hebrews 12:1-3 For many years I've jogged for exercise, but I've never run a marathon. My knees have never been strong enough to endure that long of a race. I have run a couple of 10K races. But if you have run in at least a 5K race, you should be able to identify with our text.

Suffice it to say, I hope I can retain this new perspective and simply relish the fact I am able to run. I might finally be getting the pacing thing down. For this 4th race of my running renaissance, I was determined to run the first mile conservatively. In this instance, though I felt I could go faster, I intentionally held back.

My reasons for running: Real talk There are times when the reasons for running are hard to explain. For example when I'm having a hard time to get out of the bed on the weekends to run my long run, or when I'm super tired already, but I know I have to finish this exact workout right now because I won't have time later on.
