The history of watches began in 16th century Europe, where watches evolved from portable spring-driven clocks, which first appeared in the 15th century. The watch which developed from the 16th century to the mid 20th century was a mechanical device, powered by winding a mainspring which turned gears and then moved the hands, and kept time with a rotating balance wheel.

Here's the History Behind Tissot Watches. Tissot has been manufacturing luxury watches since 1853. The original company was founded as a comptoir d'etablissement, which means that an independent network of workers would create different parts of each timepiece at home. Then they would be assembled once brought together so the timepiece could be sold.
